PORSCHE: THE CHOICE FOR THE INDIVIDUAL

→ Since Porsches were first introduced the company philosophy has been to produce cars for the individual. The extensive and attractive range of colours and materials available reflects this principle.

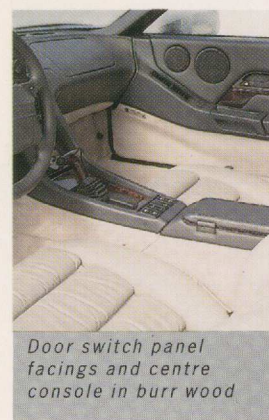

In addition to the extensive range of standard colour combinations, the Porsche Exclusive Programme exists to further personalise your Porsche. This unique programme uses only the finest materials and means that the Porsche craftsmen can develop a Porsche

A distinctive range of exciting colours.

When it comes to selecting the paintwork for your Porsche, the diverse collection of colours available will captivate even the most vivacious imagination. And with the introduction of new special colour options the choice is even more appealing.

specifically to an individual's requirements, truly demonstrating Porsche's concept of the 'tailor-made' sports car.

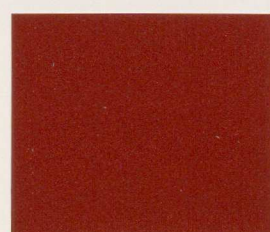

The examples shown here are, of course, just a small selection of the range available. Your Official Porsche Centre will be delighted to supply more information on how to make your Porsche into the car that really suits you. ←
