

PORSCHE

Colours

Since the first Porsche was built it has been our philosophy to produce cars for the individual. The breadth of choice of colours available to you upholds this philosophy. For your Porsche you can choose from our standard range of six plain and six metallic colours. Or, you can provide a sample of your favourite colour to us and we will mix it especially for you, making your Porsche truly unique. The Cabriolet soft top is available in a range of five different colours, and for your vehicle's interior you can opt for full cloth or full leather upholstery in a wide variety of shades. Because every Porsche is different, it can be months before we produce a second car in exactly the same colour with the same interior upholstery. The colours shown in this brochure represent the standard range available for 1995. For more information, your Official Porsche Centre will be delighted to advise you further on how to make your car the Porsche you always wanted.

The code number shown indicates which interior design best suits the exterior colour of your Porsche as recommended by the Porsche Design Studio. To find out which interior best complements your chosen exterior colour, compare the numbers by the exterior colour with the upholstery colours on the insert card and match the colours.
