

How income impacts personal financial behaviors and economic outlooks

Snap Finance surveyed U.S. consumers to better understand how having an income above or below $75,000 influences their shopping behaviors, personal finances, and how they think about the economy. Here's what we learned.

Economic outlook

How would you describe your current financial situation?

of those with incomes below $75K said their current financial situation is unstable or very unstable, compared to just 6% of those with higher incomes.

Household income below $75K

Very Unstable

Unstable

Stable

Very stable

Household income $75K+

Unstable

Stable

Very stable

Gen X is most likely to feel on shaky financial ground, with 21% describing their current financial situation as unstable or very unstable.

How has your financial situation changed in the past 6 months?

32%

of those with household incomes below $75K said their financial situation has gotten much or somewhat worse in the past 6 months, compared to 19% for those with higher incomes.

Younger generations report the greatest change in financial situation

Millennials

17%

Much better

22%

Somewhat better

38%

About the same

18%

Somewhat worse

6%

Much worse

Gen Z

9%

Much better

12%

Somewhat better

47%

About the same

28%

Somewhat worse

4%

Much worse

Do you believe the economy is in decline?

65%

Household income below $75K

67%

Household income $75K+

Percentage who strongly/somewhat agree economy is in decline

75% of households with underage children at home believe the economy is in decline

Shopping behaviors

Are you smarter about your spending because of the economy?

65%

Household income below $75K

75%

Household income $75K+

59%

Boomers

77%

Gen X

74%

Millennials

69%

Gen Z

79%

Households with underage children at home

Percentage who strongly/somewhat agree they are spending smarter

Have your shopping habits changed due to the current economy?

Among those with household incomes below $75K

52%

search for deals and discounts more than in the past

48%

currently buy more nonbrand-name products

47%

use more coupons than in the past

Percentage who are spending less on nonessential items

Household income below $75K

Household income $75K+

Personal finances

Could you pay for a major unexpected expense or emergency?

22%

Household income below $75K

59%

Household income $75K+

Percentage who are extremely/very confident

Only 29% of Gen Z and 37% of Gen X could pay for a major unexpected expense or emergency.

Excluding your mortgage, do you always make your debt repayments on time?

Household income below $75K

Household income above $75K

Boomers

Gen X

Millennials

Gen Z

About the survey

Snap Finance's proprietary research exploring the economic outlook and habits of those with incomes above and below $75,000 was conducted in September 2024, surveying 1,002 financial decision makers through SurveyMonkey's U.S. panel.

For more information, visit snapfinance.com

Snap-branded product offering includes retail installment contracts, bank installment loans, and lease-to-own financing. Talk with your local Snap sales representative for more details on which product qualifies at your store location. For more detailed information, please visit snapfinance.com/legal/financing-options.

snapfinance.com

