

Grow your career with us

Graduate programme

Welcome to ifac

If you have the confidence and ability to test yourself on accountancy work of the highest quality, ifac may be the organisation for you.

You're about to take the first steps on an important journey. Becoming an accountant is not easy, but it is rewarding. In order to become an accountant, you must have a number of attributes; good numerical skills, the ability to focus on challenging problems, the capacity to learn, a strong work ethic and a belief in your own abilities.

There will be many challenges along the way; the long hours of study, the concept that is difficult to grasp, clients who need accounts or advice at short notice.

In the end you will reach the beginning, qualification in hand and experience banked, you will be a professional Qualified Accountant looking forward to your career in professional practice.

You will be someone who is trusted by clients to always have their best interests at heart, to go the extra mile when needed and to deliver excellence in everything you do.

ifac is a special place to gain your professional qualification. We offer an accelerated training programme with access to our accounting, tax, audit, and financial services departments.

ifac is part of the fabric of Irish life. We operate in every town and village in the country, looking after real businesses and their interests. Graduates who join us gain an understanding of accounts, tax and professional services.

More importantly they learn to communicate with business leaders and help them to meet challenges they face in remaining competitive, profitable and responsive to an ever changing economic landscape.

Our programme is designed to accelerate your development, we want you to become an accountant who matters, an accountant of value.

Join us and achieve your potential!

John Donoghue, CPA
CEO

“I work with a range of clients including large dairy farmers”

Donal O’Riordan

Trainee, Kilkenny office

“I am an engineering graduate with a masters in finance. I am a keen golfer and of course being from Kilkenny a huge hurling fan. I always had a strong desire to develop a career as an accountant. I joined ifac as part of a large group of Trainee’s in 2016 and I have recently begun studying towards the ACCA qualification. I work with a range of clients including large dairy farmers, co-ops, marts and SME’s; no two days are the same.”

Our culture

Here at ifac you get a sense of our culture as soon as you walk through the door. We have a friendly, warm and open culture. We work hard to provide the best possible service.

All input from our staff is valued and when you join us we want you to bring in your own individual personality, experience and background. This culture has supported us to work, mature and improve together as one of Ireland's largest accountancy firms.

We encourage our employees to make a difference not only in the company but also in the wider community through Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and diversity.

We have four core values which we apply to everything we do:

Foresight

We believe in using our insight, experience and expertise to anticipate the needs and opportunities of our members. We are not just focused on what we do, but what we can achieve with our clients. We are driven by mutual success — growth for our clients, and each other.

Collaboration

We are focused on our clients' goals and work closely with them to achieve the best outcomes. We believe in collaboration and that we can achieve great things when we share our experience and combine our expertise.

Consistency

We work all around Ireland with clients that each have distinct ambitions and a common expectation of the high quality of our service and advice. This requires that we, individually and collectively, deliver services that consistently meet or exceed these expectations.

Commitment

We believe in working sustainably: building enduring and valuable relationships with our members; sustaining a way of working together that is respectful and supportive of each other and the wider communities in which we live.

“It's great working within a team environment ”

Denise Bergin

Trainee, Carlow office

“I am an accounting graduate from IT Carlow. I work with a team of seven and I have regular interactions within the company including audit, tax & financial services. It's great working in a team environment and having the opportunity to interact and learn from senior professionals in both the office and out on site with clients.”

“ifac has provided me with a great opportunity to progress my career”

Billy Holland
Manager, Templemore office

“ifac has provided a great opportunity for me to progress my career. I joined ifac in 2012 as a part qualified accountant and have had the opportunity to quickly progress to Branch Manager of the Templemore office. The team and I manage a diverse portfolio of clients ranging from farm to fork, it's great to be involved with so many different businesses”

Trainee of the Year

Our annual ‘Trainee of the Year’ award recognises performance excellence during the year.

Nominations are chosen by senior management with the winner and all finalists receiving awards as well as the prestigious accolade which you can promote throughout the remainder of your career path.

Mentor System

ifac operate a mentor system specifically aimed at providing support and guidance to our new graduates.

We want you to really fit in so your mentor will be with you almost daily in the first four to six weeks. Your mentor is located in the same office as you and will be with you throughout the year, not just during the initial settling-in-period.

“...providing support and guidance to our new graduates.”

Corporate Social Responsibility

The opportunity to make a difference

“We aim to work with integrity and responsibility in everything we do.”

We encourage our employees to make a difference not only in the company but also in the wider community through Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and diversity.

We recognise that we have a responsibility to our local communities and are committed to having a positive impact on everyone around us.

We aim to work with integrity and responsibility in everything we do. When you join us, we'll tell you more about how you can get involved with charitable and community based activities; you can donate your time, your skills or fund-raise for your charity.
