

The Canticle of the Creatures

Most high, all-powerful, all good, Lord!
all praise is yours, all glory, all honor, and blessing,
to you alone, Most High, do they belong,
and no mortal lips are worthy to pronounce your name.

All praise be yours, my Lord,
through all that you have made,
and first my Lord Brother Sun, who brings the day;
and light you give to us through him.
How beautiful is he how radiant in all his splendor!
of you, Most High, he bears the likeness.

All praise be yours, my Lord,
through Sister Moon and Stars;
in the heavens you have made them,
bright and precious and fair.

All praise be yours, my Lord,
through Brothers Wind and Air,
and fair and stormy, all the weather's moods,
by which you cherish all that you have made.

All praise be yours, my Lord, through Sister Water, so useful, lowly, precious and pure.

All praise be yours, my Lord, through Brother Fire, through whom you brighten up the night.
How beautiful is he, how playful!
Full of power and strength.

All praise be yours, my Lord,
through Sister Earth, our mother, who feeds us in her sovereignty and produces various fruits with colored flowers and herbs.

All praise be yours, my Lord, through those who grant pardon for love of you;
through those who endure sickness and trial.
Happy are those who endure in peace, by you,
Most High, they will be crowned.

All praise be yours, my Lord, through Sister Death,
from whom no one among the living can escape.
Woe to those who die in mortal sin!
Happy those She finds doing your will!
the second death can do no harm to them.

Praise and bless my Lord, and give him thanks, and serve him with great humility.
