STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student may withdraw from the MIB program at any time upon giving written notice to the School's Registrar. The withdrawing student may re-enter the program at a later date on the condition that they will have completed their program within five years of their original start date. He or she may use any unexpired program fee credit toward the receipt of educational services or materials, which will be priced at the fee structure of the time of re-entry. The returning student is therefore liable for any fee inflation from the original enrollment to the time of re-entry. Course choices and study program will be subject to space and scheduling availability. In addition to providing written notice to the Registrar, all students must meet with the Dean prior to withdrawing (see student handbook for detailed procedure). If the student is on a student visa at his or her campus of study, withdrawal from Hult will invalidate the student visa and immigration authorities will be informed.
