Terms & conditions relevant to all programs

Compliance with Payment Terms & Conditions

Hult will withdraw any previously confirmed seat, or deny access to class, should the payment terms and conditions not be met.

Hult reserves the right to assess a late payment fee to outstanding account balances or the maximum allowed by law.

Methods of Payment

Foreign transaction fees and currency exchange rates can be costly and finding the best provider is time-consuming which is why Hult is offering through payment providers a cost-efficient, reliable, and fast way to make payments.

All payments should be made via the Online Application portal payment service. The Online Application portal provides customized bank details so students can pay in their local currency and ensures the correct amount due in invoiced currency is received by Hult and applied to the student account in the fastest way possible.

All payments should be received in the invoiced currency and all fees associated with remitting payment are the responsibility of the student. All other financial queries should be directed to hult.finance@hult.edu

Bank Wire Fraud

We advise all students to be mindful of the risk of bank wire fraud and to take responsibility for checking that any bank transfer of funds is made to the correct location. Hult does not accept liability for payments that are made to incorrect third parties.

Data Protection

Your personal data is important to us. The information provided by you in the application form will be processed by Hult for the purposes of completing your application and to provide you with the products and services that you have ordered (including insurance coverage, as applicable). Hult may share your personal data with our business partners both within the US, and outside the US (including but not limited to EEA/Switzerland). Hult has put appropriate safeguards in place for transfers of your personal data outside the US, including the standard data protection clauses adopted by the European Commission. Hult and its business partners may also use your personal data, combined with information about you obtained from third party sources, to inform you about our products and services.

We will only keep your personal data for as long as it is necessary for the purposes for which it has been collected or in accordance with time limits stipulated by law and good market practice unless further retention is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims. Of course, you have the right to, at any time, withdraw your consent or object to us using your personal data for marketing purposes by contacting us at the email address set out below. If you would like to have a copy of the information Hult holds about you, or a copy of the standard data protection clauses, or would like to rectify or erase personal data, or restrict the processing of personal data, or otherwise object to our processing, or use your right to data portability, please contact the Finance Department at Hult International Business School Inc., 1 Education Street, Cambridge MA, or email hult.finance@hult.edu. If you would like to lodge a complaint, please contact the supervisory authority in the country where you live. Information about the enrollment and/or financial status of a Hult student may be disclosed to a government authority or student loan provider for the purpose of complying with local laws. Information will only be provided to student loan providers if adequate consent from the student is presented by the provider.

Cancellation or Changing of Programs, Specializations, and Rotation Locations

All programs, rotation locations, and specializations are offered in good faith, but in the event enrollments for a specific program or location are deemed not sufficient to viably run the program, Hult reserves the right to cancel or move any offered program, rotation location, or specialization to another campus location. Hult will endeavor to communicate any changes as early as possible, and offer any affected students other programs, locations, or specializations to attend. Program curricula, including program credits, specializations and number of electives may also be subject to change without notice.

Providers of the Programs

Students attending this program will be provided their education by Hult International Business School, Inc. (USA). Through its global reach, marketing capabilities, multicultural understanding, and past experience, Hult attracts students from around the globe to its business education programs and makes various other services available to its students.

Admissions Policy

The admissions policy of Hult International Business School is intended to assess how an applicant might contribute to and benefit from an intensive graduate business education in a culturally diverse institutional environment. It reflects a holistic approach to application review, based on (1) Basic Admissions Criteria, (2) Primary Personal Factors, and (3) Secondary Personal Factors, as set forth below:

Basic Admissions Criteria

1. Undergraduate/Post Graduate degree
2. Undergraduate/Post Graduate transcript
3. Letters of recommendation
4. English language proficiency

5. Statement of purpose
6. Résumé

Primary Personal Factors

1. Career goals
2. Entrepreneurial skills
3. Evidence of:
 - Leadership
 - Professional promise
 - Motivation and drive
 - Overcoming adversity

Secondary Personal Factors

- Professional certifications
- Honors and awards
- Publications
- Membership in professional or business associations
- Community, public, or national service
- Extracurricular activities

The above factors are not exhaustive. They may be weighted differently. They may not, however, be subsumed into a standard formula or ranking. They will be considered in conjunction with all other admissions criteria and factors, in light of the School's mission and purpose.

Financial Aid Policy

For these programs, Hult does not award any merit-based scholarships or need-based grants and or other financial assistance. Additionally, no previously awarded scholarship or financial aid can be applied to these programs: this includes, but is not limited to, any previous scholarship or tuition fee reduction for the Dual Degree program.

Electives

For students on our Virtual\Live\Online Programs, a limited number of online electives will be made available. The student may opt to join in-person electives on any of our campus locations subject to an additional fee. Campus-based electives are subject to capacity and scheduling constraints and not all campus-based electives will be available on all campuses.

Cancellations Prior to Program Start

Should a student cancel their seat prior to the start of the program the following conditions will apply:

- The application fee is non-refundable
- The Confirmation Deposit, including deferral fees, are non-refundable, except in the case of an applicant confirming upon the condition of meeting entrance requirements and subsequently failing to meet such standards prior to matriculation, the applicant will be eligible for a refund of 50% of the value of the Confirmation Deposit.

Course materials paid to Hult are refundable until the date of matriculation. After classes commence, this charge is considered consumed and therefore non-refundable.

Withdrawals and Related Refunds

After starting the program, a student may voluntarily withdraw from the Program at any time upon giving written notice to the School's Registrar. The withdrawing student may re-enter the program at a later date on the condition that they will have completed their program within 24 months of their original matriculation date.

He or she may use any unexpired program fee credit toward the receipt of educational services or materials, which will be priced at the fee structure of the time of re-entry. The returning student is therefore liable for any fee inflation from the original enrollment to the time of re-entry. Course choices and study program will be subject to space and scheduling availability. In addition to providing written notice to the Registrar, all students must meet with the Program Dean prior to withdrawing (see student handbook for detailed procedure).

No refunds will be given once the program has commenced*.

*In accordance with regulations, special rules apply to U.S. citizens, Californian residents and other permanent U.S. residents receiving U.S. federal student aid. Copies of these policies are available upon request from the Financial Aid Office.

Dismissal from the Program

The School reserves the right to dismiss any participant, at any time, whose academic performance is unsatisfactory; whose conduct constitutes unacceptable behavior as determined at the sole discretion of Hult Campus management; who has not paid their fees; or whose legal or medical problems hinder satisfactory performance. In such cases, the Dean will notify the participant in writing, a degree will not be awarded to the participant, and, as appropriate, the participant's sponsor will be notified. In cases of dismissal, no program fee refunds will be due.

Services

Student acknowledges that the program fees assessed on these programs are for the educational component only and that the program fees do not include extracurricular events, career advising, or other program benefits outside of the basic education offered. Some additional services may be offered at an additional fee.

Online Learning

Access to internet - By enrolling in this program, the student has confirmed that he/she has access to internet compatible for successful participation. Should student experience individual networking issues that impact program participation, Hult assumes no responsibility to remedy in any way. Embargoed Countries - The student confirms that they will not try to join any of Hult's online education from a US Embargoed Country (i.e. Crimea (Ukraine), Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, or Syria at October 2020) as amended from time to time –the latest list can be found <https://home.treasury.gov/policy-issues/financial-sanctions/sanctions-programs-and-country-information> Location of Online Learning - Whilst Hult International Business School Inc (USA) supplies the education, the student remains responsible for the collection, declaration, and payment of any local indirect sales tax that might apply based on which country they choose to undertake their online study.
