Today, get to know the architecture, scenery, and history of The City of Light's 20 neighborhoods—or arrondissements—during a guided tour.

- Drive down the sycamore-lined Champs-Élysées to view the Arc de Triomphe, which was commissioned by Napoleon in 1806 in honor of his victory at the Battle of Austerlitz. Completed after his death in 1836, this iconic French symbol houses the country's Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and several famous sculptures depicting the French Revolution.
- Pass the oldest bridge that crosses the Seine River—Pont Neuf, or “new bridge”—and the legendary Notre-Dame Cathedral, located on an island in the river.
- See the Eiffel Tower, the ornate Palais Garnier opera house, and Place de la Concorde—the city's largest public square, flanked by two columned buildings and eight statues representing the provincial capitals.
- Marvel at the iconic architecture of the Louvre, home to some of the most seminal artwork from across the ages, and Hôtel des Invalides, the final resting place of Napoleon himself.

Take in the nighttime allure of the City of Light during an evening cruise on the Seine River. Coast under Paris' bridges and behold the illuminated monuments of the city glittering alongside the riverbanks—all while indulging in an included dinner, served with your choice of beer or wine.
