

Information on the Agreement Pursuant to GDPR Article 26

Who processes which data?

GBA Holding GmbH is the operator of the website <https://www.gba-group.com/>. On the website, there are links to the websites of affiliated companies in our group, including nuTIQ GmbH. In order to ascertain from which sources the visitors come to their website, nuTIQ GmbH uses the link management system bit.ly. When using bit.ly, personal data such as the IP address is collected from the users. Further information can be found at the nuTIQ GmbH privacy policy: <https://nutiq.com/privacy-policy/>. GBA Holding GmbH has no access to the personal data that is collected through the use of bit.ly. For processing operations where there is no shared definition of the purpose and means of the individual stages of the data processing, each party of the contract shall be regarded as an independent controller as defined by Art. 4, no. 7 of the GDPR. The contractual parties have reached an agreement regarding the portion of the data processing for which they bear a shared responsibility for data protection according to GDPR Art. 26.

How can you assert your rights?

The information about the processing of personal data in accordance with GDPR Articles 13 and 14 is provided by the joint controllers in their respective areas of operation. Data subjects may assert the rights granted to them by Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR against both controllers.

The rights of data subjects are:

- Right to access by the data subject
- Right to rectification and erasure
- Right to restriction of processing
- Right to object to processing
- Right to data portability

Furthermore, you have the right to issue a complaint with a data privacy supervisory authority about how your personal data is processed by us. The responsible supervisory authority for our company is the Hamburg State Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information.

How do we protect your data?

Within their own respective areas of operation, both parties ensure that the employees charged with the data processing are bound to confidentiality and instructed on the data privacy regulations that are relevant for their work. The implementation, configuration, and operation of the systems are to be conducted in compliance with the provisions of the GDPR and other regulations, in particular taking into account the fundamental principles of data protection in their design and through data privacy-friendly default settings, as well as by utilizing the appropriate technical and organizational measures that correspond with the best available technology. Both parties take appropriate security measures to protect your data in accordance with the GDPR Art. 32.
