

Возможно несколько вариантов ответа :

1. When would you say “we couldn’t ask for a nicer day, can we?”
 - A. When you want to know about the weather.
 - B. When the weather is horrible, you wish it could get nicer.
 - C. When the weather is sunny and beautiful.
 - D. When the weather forecast says the weather is going to be nice.
2. What does the question “don’t you love this warm weather” imply?
 - A. The person likes the warm weather, and he thinks his friend also likes it.
 - B. The person is asking his friend about weather.
 - C. The person doesn’t like the warm weather, and he thinks his friend doesn’t like it either.
 - D. The person doesn’t like the warm weather, but he thinks his friend does.
3. What could you say when someone says “I can’t believe how cold it is these days”?
 - A. I know. It’s freezing.
 - B. I can believe it.
 - C. How have you been?
 - D. Why can’t you?
4. If it has been raining heavily for several days, you could say:
 - A. I’m glad the rainy season is over.
 - B. Can you believe all of this rain we’ve been having?
 - C. Let’s go hiking.
 - D. Have a nice day.

Возможно несколько вариантов ответа :

1. When would you say “we couldn’t ask for a nicer day, can we?”
C. When the weather is sunny and beautiful.
2. What does the question “don’t you love this warm weather” imply?
A. The person likes the warm weather, and he thinks his friend also likes it.
3. What could you say when someone says “I can’t believe how cold it is these days”?
A. I know. It’s freezing.
4. If it has been raining heavily for several days, you could say:
B. Can you believe all of this rain we’ve been having?

