Should a student not perform satisfactorily or not meet the required minimum English levels for admission to a degree program, they will not be allowed to proceed with their original program but will be offered an alternative program or invited to withdraw without a refund. For all programs, upon arrival you will take a written examination to determine that you are at the stated level of English for admission to EF University Preparation Abroad Programs. For the EF English Prep courses, upon arrival you will take a written examination to determine the level at which you should begin your studies. Every EF University Preparation Abroad Center will provide up to six levels. Please note: when a school has a beginners' group of less than five students, EF University Preparation Abroad reserves the right to reduce the number of lessons per week.

Travel and Medical Insurance

9 months $990; 6 months $740; 11 months $1,290
All our students are required to have medical and accident insurance. We have negotiated tailor-made coverage for EF students with the insurance provider Erika Insurance Ltd. We strongly recommend this policy as it protects you against expenses incurred through accident or illness, and provides coverage for loss or theft of baggage and personal effects. It also provides coverage against interruption of your EF program due to very serious illness and includes Liability and Legal coverage. If you do not wish to take this policy, you will need to provide us with a copy in English of the alternative insurance policy you have taken out individually. Please note: students enrolling at Sydney or Brisbane are required by the Australian Government to insure themselves medically with an Australian company. EF can provide students with Medibank Private insurance. Please contact us for more detailed information regarding the cost of Medibank insurance. Students from Norway, Sweden and Belgium are exempt from this requirement as the Australian Government has reciprocal arrangements with these countries.

Liability

EF will not be liable in any way to the student in the event of any service, contracted to be supplied by EF, becoming impossible to supply by reason of industrial dispute or other cause outside the control of EF. EF will not be liable for loss, damage, or injury to persons or property howsoever caused, save where the liability is expressly imposed beyond exclusion by statute.

All programs are supplied by EF Education First Ltd., Switzerland. Please fax or send completed Enrollment Form to the office of the EF representative on the back of this brochure. Or fax to:
