Title	FORM+Werkzeug
Short characteristics	FORM+Werkzeug is the industry magazine for tool and die making. Tools play a key role in production, as they ultimately determine the cycle time in which production takes place. FORM+Werkzeug provides suggestions and ideas on manufacturing technologies, the associated IT systems and corporate management. Prepared in the form of technical articles, interviews and background reports. Informative, insightful, different: We are not only interested in the machining center, but also in the person behind it. We inform about Industry 4.0 – and want to know how automation concepts can be integrated into the existing machinery. In addition to presenting standard parts and hot-runner solutions, we want to know what tool design is necessary for this. We look for examples of which technology is best suited for which application.
