T&M: Georg Schlunegger

I want you to know where you belong
Lend you a shoulder to lean on
I'll be your shelter from the storm
That's coming on

I'll be the coat that keeps you warm
Wait up at night, till you come home
Oh, I'm the echo down the hall

And I will try a hundred times
And I will run a thousand miles
Brick by brick and stone by stone
I'll build you a home
Oh I will try a hundred times for you

I grow my roots just like a tree
So when you get tired, lean on me
You will be save right underneath
These leaves

I'll be your spark that lights the fire
To keep you warm all through the night and
Never let you leave my sight

And I will try a hundred times
And I will run a thousand miles
Brick by brick and stone by stone
I'll build you a home
Oh I will try a hundred times

*If you'd ever be
Miles away from me
I'd run to you
I'd run to you*

*If you call my name
Out there in the rain
I'll run to you*

And I will try a hundred times for you
